1. TERMS & CONDITIONS

- The use of campsites, equipment and campground facilities granted by Cape Cod Maple Park Campground (hereafter referred to as Maple Park), is subject to the terms and conditions listed below, all rules posted throughout the campground and any additional rules Maple Park staff disseminates to Guests and Visitors. Maple Park reserves the right to alter these terms and conditions at any time and for any reason.
- The “Primary Guest” is the primary person responsible for the reservation.
- Additional “Guests” are persons that the Primary Guest assigns to the reservation for the entire duration of the reservation.
- “Visitors” are persons that the Primary Guest assigns to the reservation temporarily based on Maple Park’s terms, conditions and fees.
- The Primary Guest acknowledges that they have received a copy of these terms and conditions either electronically or in person. The Primary Guest is responsible for disseminating these terms and conditions in writing, verbally or electronically to all Guests and Visitors listed on their reservation. The Primary Guest is responsible for ensuring that all persons listed on their reservation understand and abide by these terms and conditions listed below, all rules posted throughout the campground and any additional rules Maple Park staff disseminates to Guests and Visitors.
- Maple Park is not responsible for accidents, injuries or death resulting from non-compliance with these terms and conditions, posted rules or additional rules Maple Park staff disseminates to Guests and Visitors. Maple Park Campground is not liable for lost, damaged, or stolen items.
- If the Primary Guest, Guests or Visitors fail to comply with any of these terms and conditions, posted rules, additional rules Maple Park staff disseminates or any rules or regulations that may be hereafter prescribed by management, Maple Park may revoke their license to use a campsite, equipment or facilities.
- This license is revocable by Maple Park at any time and for any reason, without refund and may include ejection from the campground for any behavior Maple Park deems inappropriate, disruptive, disrespectful, or disturbing to other campers, guests, visitors, staff or management. This includes the Primary Guest, Guests and Visitors.

- In addition to the terms and conditions outlined in this document, the following terms and conditions also apply to seasonal campers.
- Any modification to a campsite requires prior management approval in writing or electronically (email).
- Site modification request forms may be obtained from Maple Park's office and must be submitted for approval.

- This includes but is not limited to modifications to the vegetation, site layout, installation of soil, rocks, mulch, fencing, decking, TV dishes, RV skirting, storage sheds etc.
- Maple Park reserves the right to deny any modifications for any reason.
- Any modifications performed without management approval may result in termination of the seasonal rental contract and forfeiture of any money paid.
- Maple Park is only for tents, campers, and recreational mobile vehicles. Mobile homes are prohibited.
- Any RV or trailer older than twenty years must receive management approval in order to be allowed in the campground. Any seasonal that purchases a new RV/Trailer must advise management and receive approval prior to installation.
- No one shall identify Maple Park as their legal or mailing residence.
- Although additional tents on sites are not allowed, on occasion seasonal campers can “camp out” in small dome tents on seasonal sites. These tents must be taken down when not in use.
- Any type of service person or installer coming into the park to work at your site, must be approved by management. You must go to the office and receive a temporary car tag and meet the person at the gate upon their arrival. Maple Park reserves the right to deny access to any service providers for any reason based on past incidents or evidence of poor business practices.
- Heavy construction equipment including backhoes, bobcats, skid steers, excavators etc. are not allowed to be brought into Maple Park.
- Storage of utility and boat trailers on site is not permitted. Maple Park offers specific storage sites for these purposes.
- Any television, satellite or dish antenna must be attached to your camper or mounted very close to your camper. Any mounting location, other than on camper installation must be approved by management.
- Only patio style furniture is allowed outside of campers.
- All electrical connections must be 10/3 grounded.
- The building of wooden camper entrance stairs is permissible if the stairs are constructed of pressure treated or heavy-duty composite lumber.
- Stairs may be covered with outdoor carpeting and must never exceed forty inches in any direction. Handrails are allowed for safety, but landings are not allowed.
- Building plans for stairs must be submitted and approved prior to construction and installation.
- Each site may have one storage shed, measuring no more than 36 square feet at its base. Sheds must be made of plastic/composite material. They must be placed as inconspicuously as possible and within the confines of the site.
- One structure is allowed on your site in addition to your RV awning. This structure may be a gazebo or screen room.
- The gazebo or screen room size must be approved by management. It must have a heavy-duty, sturdy metal frame, and the roof must be heavy-duty vinyl, canvas or metal.

- Portable garages and carports are not allowed.
- Decks are allowed but must meet Maple Park requirements and be approved by management. Decks may be no longer than your trailer, made of 2" x 6" pressure treated or heavy-duty composite lumber and built 16" on center with 5/4 x 6" pressure treated or heavy-duty composite lumber.

- All sites must be kept in a neat and orderly appearance.

31. SEASONAL RESERVATION PAYMENTS

- Four equal payments are due September 15th, November 15th, January 15th and March 15th, of each year for the upcoming camping season.
- If you choose to pay in cash or check and on time, you will receive a $25 discount off each of your quarterly payments in which you paid as described on time. There will be a $25 per month late fee for every 30 days of non-payment.
- No subleasing of the campsite or camping unit. The individuals on the seasonal contract are the only guests permitted to utilize the site and unit except for paying guests.

32. SEASONAL CANCELLATIONS

- Seasonal cancellations made prior to January 1 for the upcoming season will receive a full refund minus a $100.00 cancellation fee.
- Seasonal cancellations made after January 1 but prior to the season opening date will receive a 50% refund of any money paid minus a $100.00 cancellation fee.
- Seasonal cancellations made after the season opening date will not receive any refund.

33. SEASONAL REGISTRATION FEE

- A one-time registration fee of $450 is required of all new seasonal campers.

34. SEASONAL ELECTRIC PAYMENTS

- Seasonal electric bills are issued throughout the season and at the end of the season.
- Electric bills are sent by email to the email address on file. It is the customers responsibility to ensure Maple Park is advised of any changes to the customers email address.

- A copy of the completed Credit Card Authorization form must be submitted along with the annual Seasonal Application. If an electric bill is not paid within ten days, the credit card on file will be charged automatically.
- Any electric bills not paid within ten days of issuance are subject to a $25.00 per month late fee for every 30 days of non-payment.

35. SEASONAL WINTER STORAGE

- Winter Storage is available for seasonal campers with a signed contract for no additional fee.
- All slide out rooms must be retracted, and awnings must be down.
- RV's may be covered with covers or tarps during on site storage. Only natural-colored tarps are permitted.
- Maple Park recommends that all gazebos be disassembled for the winter. If gazebos are left assembled and Maple Park has a situation that requires staff to work with heavy machinery (e.g., bucket truck, backhoe), Maple Park reserves the right to move the gazebo in a manner that may damage or destroy the gazebo. Maple Park is not responsible for any damage, destruction or removal costs and is not responsible for placing the gazebo back onto the site.
- Any items left on campsites during the winter including fencing, decking, gazebos, stairs, grills, canoes, boats etc. should be placed in a manner that allows the maintenance staff full access to the site with heavy equipment to respond to situations they deem necessary. Maple Park reserves the right to move any items in a manner that may damage or destroy them. Maple Park is not responsible for any damage, destruction or removal costs and is not responsible for placing the item back onto the campsite.
- Golf carts cannot be stored on campsites. Maple Park offers outside winter storage for an additional fee. Maple Park is not responsible for any damage to golf carts in storage.
- Maple Park will attempt to allow periodic visits to Seasonal campsites during winter months if weather permits. The purpose of these visits is to quickly check on the condition of RV's.
- In the off-season, except for the allowed visits, no one is allowed entry into the park in any manner, including on foot.
- Maple Park is not responsible for any damage caused by freeze-ups.
- Winterization of RV's must be complete prior to the end of the season.
- All canoes and boats must be removed from pond storage and stored on your campsite or taken home.
- All utilities will be turned off for the winter.

By signing below, I agree and acknowledge that the use of Maple Park for myself, my additional guests and visitors is at our own risk. I understand the dangers inherent to the use of all Maple Park's land, facilities and activities and agree to not hold Maple Park liable for any damage, injury or death resulting from this use and I understand Maple Park does not guarantee my safety, my guest's safety or my visitors safety or health at any point during our stay.

I voluntarily agree that I, my guests and my visitors are fully aware and agree with all of the policies, terms, conditions and all other matters described and outlined in this document and we agree not to sue Maple Park, and all other persons or entities affiliated with Maple Park and release Maple Park from any and all claims, demands, liability, actions, or rights of action, which are related to, arise out of or are in any way connected with our stay at Maple Park including, but not limited to any and all negligence of Maple Park, its members, directors, officers, agents, and employees, and all other persons or entities associated with Maple Park.
